COMPANY: The vineyards of QUINTA DE CHOCAPALHA are situated in the sunny hills of Estremadura, Demarked Region, northeast of Lisbon. They have been referred to since the XVI th century as for their excellent vineyards and wines.

Situated in the surroundings of Aldeia Galega the property belonged to Constantino O'Neil since the beginning of the XIX th century. Later he endowed it to Diogo Duff a distinguished Scottish noble hold in high estimation by the King D. João VI who distinguished him with the insignia "Torre e Espada".

The property remained in the Family Duff until the decade of eighty of the last century when actual owners, Alice and Paulo Tavares da Silva, acquired it. Since then important improvements have taken place in the 40 ha of vineyards and new techniques of cultivation have been introduced in the Quinta de Chocapalha, continuing the old tradition of this vine growing farm, always looking for better quality and reputation of its wines.

Only in the vintage of 2000, when the vineyards reached maturation and desired quality, it was decided to bottle the wines produced.

CHOCAPALHA RESERVA RED 2006

TECHNICAL NOTE

LABEL: CHOCAPALHA RESERVA RED 2006
REGION: Estremadura
TYPE: Red Wine
VINTAGE: 2006
GRAPES: 60%TOURIGA NACIONAL, 30% TINTA RORIZ, 10% SYRAH
SOIL: Clay- Calcareous
EXPOSITION: South- North
VINEYARDS: 19 years old, bilateral cord

VINIFICATION: The grapes, which were previously de-stemmed, went through a pre-fermenting maceration at low temperatures. Fermentation took place in the lagares with successive pressings by robot during 14 days with temperature controlled not exceeding 28°C. The aging and malolactic fermentation was effected in 90% new French oak barriques during 19 months, after which the wine was bottled (July, 2008). The total production of this wine was 7 000 bottles of 75 cl.

TASTING NOTE: Deep colour of violet tonality, good concentration in the nose. Rich perfume with notes of very ripe black fruit and floral notes, well combined with the flavour of vanilla deriving from the French oak where it stayed for a period of 19 months. On the palate it has a full taste with mature tannins well represented which confer the wine an excellent body and good perspective of aging. The final in the mouth is rich, elegant and long.

ANALITICAL NOTES:Alcohol – 14% vol.
Total Acidity – 6,1 g/L (tartaric acid)
Volatile Acidity – 0,75 g/L (acetic acid)
pH – 3,62

TECHNICAL NOTE

LABEL: QUINTA DE CHOCAPALHA – CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2005
REGION: Estremadura
TYPE: Red Wine
VINTAGE: 2006
GRAPES: 90% CABERNET SAUVIGNON, 10% SYRAH
SOIL: Clay- Calcareous
EXPOSITION: South- North
VINEYARDS: 16 years old, bilateral cord

VINIFICATION: The grapes, which were previously de-stemmed, went through a pre- fermenting maceration at low temperatures during 48 hours. Fermentation took place in the lagares with successive pressings by robot during 14 days with temperature controlled not exceeding 28°C.
After the alcoholic fermentation the wine stayed in contact with the skins for a period of 30 days in a stainless-steel vat. The aging and malolactic fermentation was effected in 50% new and 50% second wine French oak barriques during 18 months, after which the wine was bottled (June, 2008).
The total production of this wine was of 5 600 bottles of 75 cl.

TASTING NOTE: Intense violet colour, typical flavours of this grape with the traditional combination of pepper and very mature fruit. On the palate the balance is a result of discreet acidity, the well marking ripe fruit and the harmonious tannins.

ANALITICAL NOTES: Alcohol – 13,5% vol.
Total Acidity – 6,6 g/L (tartaric acid)
Volatile Acidity – 0,70 g/L (acetic acid)
